

Installation of sink in room N301

The installation of the sink in the N301 microscope room has been completed.

The sink is now ready for use from 7. February.

Anyone is welcome to use the sink, but please be sure to use the appropriate sponge for each application (in vivo, invitro (living cells), fixed specimen, cleaning of sink).

We ask for your cooperation in keeping the sink clean.

Imaging Core